Special Commendation

This recognition must be for an individual who made his/her mark in soccer in a non-playing capacity and have a major, sustained, and positive impact on Kansas soccer. This category includes owners, administrators, coaches, and referees. Candidates must be at least fifty (50) years of age (posthumous candidates are an exception) and deemed to have contributed at the requisite level for a minimum of six (6) years.

Referees must have been on the FIFA list for a minimum of seven (7) years. An exception may be made in the case of those who are deemed to have made exceptional contributions beyond their active refereeing career or who have particularly distinguished themselves without attaining the required seven (7) years. Referees on the eligibility list as of 2007 are grandfathered.
